

College/Career Resources

This page contains links to college/career resources that may assist you as you try to determine your plans after high school.

- eCampusTours.com
Virtual tours of hundreds of college campuses. Site also includes a free scholarship search and financial aid resources.
- Princeton Review
A resource containing school search information, career assessments, advice on applying for programs, test-taking strategies and practice tests, etc.
- GA Easy
Georgia Applications and Electronic Advisor System is designed to ease the process of selecting a University System of Georgia college or university to attend and applying for admissions at the institution. Contains information about institutions, admissions requirements, a list of websites, financial aid information, information to match your interests to programs (including online version of Georgia Career Information System), and online applications.
- College is Possible
A resource guide for students, parents, and education professionals including information on college preparation, choosing a college, and paying for college.
- GoCollege.com
This link will match your interests with a college. It will allow you to narrow down colleges according to majors, grades, scores, and tuition. Also provided are online applications to over 850 colleges throughout the United States. Practice ACT and SAT questions are available as well as financial aid information.
- Georgia Department of Technical & Adult Education
The Georgia Department of Technical and Adult Education oversees the state's system of technical colleges. There are 34 technical colleges, 17 satellite campuses, as well as technical programs at four university system institutions that provide a broad range of career opportunities. These schools offer a variety of associate degree and diploma programs, continuing education programs, and economic development programs. This page provides considerable information on the various technical education programs and facilities around the state.

College/Career Resources

This page contains links to college/career resources that may assist you as you try to determine your plans after high school.

- Two-Year Colleges
Links to community colleges, technical schools, junior colleges, branches of 4-year colleges which focus on associate degree education and accredited 2-year proprietary schools.
College and University Homepages
This link will connect you to over 3,000 college and university homepages.
- CollegeNet
This link provides over 1500 customized Internet admission applications built for college and university programs. When applying to more than one program you save redundant typing since common data automatically travels from form to form.
- GA411
This link help students plan, apply, and pay for college
- Occupational Outlook Handbook
A source of career information providing valuable assistance to individuals making decisions about their professional futures.
- Jobs, Careers, and College
Provides many of the tools needed for a successful career, college, or job search.
- Georgia Career Information Center
This link provides current and accurate occupational and educational information to schools and agencies throughout Georgia in order to help young people and adults make informed career choices.
- College Board--Looking Forward to Careers
This link to the College Board's website offers suggestions for getting started as you explore careers and majors. Offers links to information on how to turn interests into jobs, identifying careers that require a college education, industry information, and more.
- Peterson's Guide
Provides examples of career/job choices and gives ideas on how to finance your education
- Career Options without College
This site provides information on career opportunities, military options, and personal finance for individuals not planning to attend college.
- Georgia Department of Labor
The mission of the Georgia Department of Labor is to advance work force development and economic growth through employment, unemployment, workplace safety and training services. Includes occupational information and outlooks in Georgia.